

BOOK ENDS: DECEMBER 2013

NEWSLETTER OF THE LIBRARY OF THE CHATHAMS

VOL. XLII, NO. 12

New Youth Services Librarian

Please extend a warm welcome to John Arthur, Youth Services Librarian. He just joined the staff on Monday, December 2, coming to us from the West Orange Library where he was working in the same position. Mr. Arthur earned his BA and MLIS at Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey. His duties will include juvenile and youth collections and programming.

Friends Plan Annual Meeting

The Friends of The Library of The Chathams will hold its Annual Meeting on Wednesday, January 8, 9:30 a.m. On the agenda is an annual financial report and voting for new members of the Friends Board. Nominated are current members Candi Booker, Teedee Carroll and Barb Montague and newcomers Merilee Anderson, and Debbie Fabian. Jennifer Mathews and Cindy Murphy are nominated to fill in unexpired terms. Changes to the By-laws will also be brought up for a vote. The complete list of proposed changes is available on the Library bulletin board. Come meet the residents responsible for all the benefits provided to The Library from The Friends' fundraising and activities.

Other important news from the Friends is that book donations for the annual Book Sale in March will be accepted beginning January 6! Start cleaning out!

Christmas Markets In Europe

Mike Dutko of Spring Lake will present a travel documentary featuring various outdoor Christmas markets throughout Europe here on Wednesday, December 4, at 2 p.m. and again at 7 p.m. Included in this program will be many quaint towns along the Moselle, Rhein, and Main Rivers in Germany such as Heidelberg, Nurnberg, Passau, Rothenburg ob der Tauber, Rudesheim, and others. Markets in Strasbourg, France, Basel and Luzern in Switzerland, and Vienna and Salzburg in Austria will also be visited. After a short coffee break, a documentary film featuring organist Diane Bish and her musical guests The Canadian Brass and a variety of choral groups will be shown. The performances take place in various churches and cathedrals in Austria and Germany.

Please join us for this special holiday program.

Holiday Decorations

The holiday trees that grace the main lobby and Children's Room have been decorated by the Town and Country Garden Club. Featuring ornaments created from all natural materials, the trees have displayed the members' handiwork at the Library for more than 30 years.

We would also like to thank the Woman's Club of Chatham for their donation of the beautiful wreaths that have been placed on all our entrances to the building. The efforts of both groups are greatly appreciated this holiday season.

My Movie Night: One Direction

We will show One Direction: This is Us (PG, 106 min.) on Thursday, December 19, at 7 p.m. All are welcome to attend. The film is an all-access look at life on the road with the popular teen band, One Direction. Along with concert footage, the story of this English-Irish pop boy band's rise to fame is revealed through their humble hometown beginnings, competing on the X-Factor, becoming an overnight sensation, and performing at London's famed O2 Arena. Refreshments will be served.

Chatham resident and avocational photographer Hannah Kerwin will continue her photography show, "Irises," through December. Kerwin began taking photos with her parents' Kodak slide camera and developed her visual senses by drawing and painting. She switched to digital photography in 2007 and began photographing irises in her backyard. Most of the photos in her show were taken at the Presby Memorial Iris Gardens in Montclair. Enjoy the interplay of light, shadow, colors, shapes and textures. In particular, look for sunlight reflected in delicate raindrops and the petals' complementary pairing of linear veins and ruffled edges.

Kerwin is a Phi Beta Kappa graduate of the College of Wooster (Ohio) and obtained a master's degree in library science from Case Western University and a certificate in video production from New York University. She has worked in libraries for over 25 years and is Director of the Bound Brook Memorial Library.
