Annual Book Sale a Roaring Success!

After months of collection and sorting by dedicated volunteers and weeks of preparation, the Annual Book Sale of The Library of The Chathams was off to a roaring start on Saturday March 8th. Eager book lovers lined up, and they cascaded into the library in search of hidden treasures and book bargains once the doors opened at 7:30 A.M.

Over 35,000 books, DVD's and assorted CD's were available for sale in what is the largest single fundraiser held by the library every year. Organized and led this year by Friends of the Library board member Candi Booker, the book sale raised almost $25,000 over the span of a week. These funds will be put to good use to help purchase supplies, books and equipment for the library.

The book sale is the result of countless hours of volunteer labor that happens quietly, behind the scenes by dedicated friends of the library. Candi Booker, in recognizing the effort of these volunteers stated, "I wanted everyone to be aware of those non-board volunteers who help tremendously with our book sale. For those of you who do not help sort books for the two months leading up to the sale, and for those who perhaps are not aware of what some of them do during the sale, I would like to point out that these people give us so much of their time and sometimes go way above and beyond the call of duty."

On behalf of The Friends of The Library, THANK YOU to all volunteers and supporters of the Book Sale. It would not happen without your generous contribution of time, energy and of course...books.
