

August 2014

Library News

What lazy days of summer? We've had an event-filled one here at the Library of the Chathams and it's not over yet! We have many more exciting events to keep you out of the heat and keep your mind thriving. Thanks to the Friends of The Library, we've added new museum passes to our line-up. Enjoy a fun day out with friends and family, without the extra cost of entrance fees, to these exciting attractions: Intrepid Sea, Air, and Space Museum and The Frick Museum (both in NYC), Grounds for Sculpture (Trenton, NJ), Montclair Art Museum (Montclair, NJ), Morris Museum (Morristown, NJ), and Imagine That (Florham Park, NJ).

A Special Gift

Consider making a gift to the library in honor of someone special.

You may suggest a particular subject area or we will select what is needed for the general collection. When the book or books arrive, we will attach a bookplate with wording you provide, and the title is listed in our newsletter.

Please include full information on the honoree for the bookplate, including how you wish all names listed.

We will also need the name and address of any family members that you wish notified of your gift. The amount of your gift is not mentioned, but they will know which book or books were selected.
