Summer Reading is Almost Here!

The annual Summer Reading Club starts on Monday, June 22, and this year we've got a lot of new things happening:

- A Summer Reading Club for adults with prizes.
- Our second Summer Reading Contest for teens, with a grand prize iPad Mini.
- A Summer Reading Kickoff Party from 6:30 to 8:30 pm on Monday, June 22, with music for all ages outside (in the library courtyard) by Monkey Monkey Music, crafts, snacks, and a chance to sign-up for the children's, teen, and adult Summer Reading Clubs. In the case of rain, band will perform indoors.
- Early registration at the Library of The Chatham's tent at the Borough Tricentennial celebration, Saturday, June 13.
- Many new events and programs throughout June, July and August.

Children will have a chance to win prizes, generously provided by the Woman's Club of Chatham, throughout the summer as they read and log their books in the children's room.

The Summer Reading Club has been an annual tradition for years, and we hope all of the members of your family will join us!
