

Salami Cheese Pie

Great for brunch or as an appetizer if cut into thin slices.

- One box Pillsbury refrigerated pie crust (includes 2 crusts)
- ½ pound thin sliced Genoa salami
- 1 lb. Muenster cheese sliced
- 3 eggs, beaten

Put bottom crust in pie pan, then layer the cheese and salami, starting and ending with cheese. Pour the beaten eggs over the top. Cover with top crust and bake for one hour at 350, or 45 minutes at 375.
